

Application For DUI Defense Law Board Certification National College for DUI Defense, Inc.

July 31, 2013

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for applying to become Board Certified in the area of DUI Defense Law. The National College for DUI Defense, Inc. (NCDD) is presently the only organization accredited by the American Bar Association (ABA) in this specialty field. ABA accreditation is currently recognized in over 20 states, and that list continues to grow.

While you may find the application process a bit tedious, it is necessary to obtain a lot of information to ensure that only those lawyers who have demonstrated, among other qualifications, both exceptional experience and exceptional knowledge in the area of DUI Defense Law become Board Certified.

Before completing your application, it is strongly recommended that you carefully review the Rules Governing Board Certification by the National College for DUI Defense, Inc. The most recent rules may be found online at www.ncdd.com. Follow the appropriate links to certification and the Rules Governing Board Certification.

Should you have any questions regarding the completion of your application, please contact the Executive Director of the NCDD, Ms. Rhea Kirk at:

445 South Decatur Street
Montgomery, Alabama 36104
(334) 264-1950
Email Address: rhea@ncdd.com

Once you have completed the application, you should mail your application, together with the fees, to Ms. Kirk at the address noted above. Please keep a copy of your application so that you may refer to it in the event we have questions once the application is received by the Committee.

It is also important to notify the NCDD of any changes in your contact information while your application remains pending.

Please note that before an applicant may become Board Certified, the applicant must meet all prerequisites for Board Certification as defined in the rules. This includes, but is not limited to, complying with the requisite litigation experience, passing the examination, obtaining the requisite number of positive references, achieving satisfactory peer review, and finally, approval as a Board Certified lawyer by the NCDD Board of Regents.

Under our current rules, you may be allowed to take the Certification Examination prior to meeting the other prerequisites, but you will not become certified until all prerequisites have been met. Please set aside sufficient time to study and otherwise prepare for the Certification Examination. There is a link on the NCDD web site with suggested reading materials to assist you in preparing for the exam. There will also be instructions and recommendations in writing the answers for the examination that will be contained in materials that will be sent to you at a later date.

Again, thank you for taking the first step to become Board Certified. Achieving Board Certification is a true honor that is held by only a tiny percentage of lawyers in the nation. As of February 1, 2013, only 45 lawyers in the nation hold this distinction. Reaching this high threshold of experience and standard of practice provides not only self-satisfaction, but may assist you in distinguishing yourself from the many lawyers who claim expertise in this area of law.

I look forward to adding you to the list of board certified lawyers. With kindest regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

SECTION D: CONTESTED MATTERS (See Rule 2.1.1)

Please list forty (40) contested matters involving the taking of evidence in a DUI or DUI-related case, i.e. hearings or motions within the past three (3) years (within the 36 months preceding the date of application) THAT ARE NOT PREVIOUSLY LISTED AS A TRIAL IN SECTION C. These contested matters should involve both opposing counsel and a judge who is also licensed as a lawyer that receives evidence at hearings and trials and has preferably been appointed by a governmental entity or is an elected official. Be certain to complete all requested information so we may verify your involvement in the case. A factor to consider, but not a requirement, is whether evidence is received from a witness other than a record-keeper and whether the Rules of Evidence apply in that forum.

IMPORTANT: In addition, you must obtain a copy of the docket sheet or other written verification for each of the cases listed below from the applicable court clerk and attach it to the application. Please note any cases that may have been expunged or are otherwise unavailable for verification.
